

January 2019

The color of springtime is in the flowers; the color of winter is in the imagination.

Family Fun Night January 24, 5-6:30

Come to the Lithgow Library for a fun, annual event put on by the Literacy Volunteers of Great Augusta. There will be all sorts of organizations offering activities for preschool-aged children with a focus on literacy. Play games, make a craft, and have fun with some of CDM's new mobile exhibits! Free and open to the public.

Book Sale seeking donations!

Our annual book sale is coming up next month! Drop off any donations at the museum during regular business hours throughout the month of January. We accept donations of books for all ages and from all genres.
